

British Railway Modellers of Australia Inc Melbourne Convention – 5th October 2024 Second Hand Sales – Terms & Conditions

SELLERS

BRMA does not take any commission on the sale of items.

Sellers should use the Second Hand Sales Form that was emailed to them.

Sellers need to make sure that their sales items have price tags and are clearly labelled with their; Identification, item number and sale price. Items without price tags will not be accepted.

Identification should be the sellers initials and membership number as per the example 🖱

ME265 17 $25

If any items are damaged or not operational, then the seller needs to make sure that the relevant item is clearly labelled as to what is wrong with the item.

The sales room (The Tudors Regal Room) will be open at 08:00 to accept any sales items.

Sales items need to be handed in prior to the convention start time 09:00

Sales will take place at morning tea and during the lunch break.

An unsold items will be returned to the seller after the convention has finished.

Any monies from cash sales will also be given to the seller after the convention has finished.

Any sales by Eftpos will be noted on the sales form when it is handed back to the seller and the seller contacted during the week to arrange the transfer of funds from the sale of their items.

BUYERS

All items are presented in good faith and it the buyers responsibility to inspect the item prior to purchase.

Payments can be made via cash or Eftpos.

BRMA does not take a commission on sales items, however the Eftpos service provider does, therefore any service charge will be passed on to the buyer.

Prices as marked on sale items are final, we are not in a position to bargain with the sales items.

However, we can divulge the identity of the seller and it is up to the buyer to negotiate with the seller.